ELEKTRO LUMEN

The elegant URBIS park luminaire combines the charm of classic design with cutting-edge 21st-century LED performance. Designed for city parks, squares, and promenades, it offers not only top-class visual comfort but also high durability thanks to its robust aluminum body and IP65 protection. A wide range of color temperatures is available, including an amber variant suitable for sensitive or historical areas. URBIS is more than just a luminaire – it's proof that public lighting can be stylish, efficient, and highly functional at the same time.
